

As a subscriber to Sonic.net ISP for nearly 10 years, I am dismayed to learn that the service could be wiped out by telephone monopolies. The service provided by Sonic is excellent, and any problems encountered are quickly and accurately addressed. Last year I switched my local phone service from AT&T to SBC, in order to keep Sonic as my ISP when I subscribed to DSL.